Billing

We bill you in advance for the minimum monthly charge and in arrears for calls and SMS. Your first bill will include charges for part of the month from when you took up your plan until the end of that billing cycle, as well as the minimum monthly charge in advance for the next billing cycle.

Important information about your first bill

When you first start a plan or change your plan part way through a billing period, your first bill will have additional charges. It will include your minimum monthly charge in advance, plus a proportion of your minimum monthly charge based on the number of days left in the billing period.

You'll receive a proportion of your Monthly Data Allowance based on the number of days left in the billing period, and your full Monthly Data Allowance in the next month.

Paperless Billing

This bundle requires paperless billing and electronic payment. A $2 fee will be applied a month in arrears if you receive a paper bill and/or make a bill payment in person or via mail. Some exemptions apply. To set up Email Bill, visit telstra.com/emailbill. To set up Direct Debit or for information on other bill payment options, visit telstra.com/billpay

Changing bundles

If you've taken up this bundle on a 24-month minimum term, you can change to another T-Broadband on the NBN range plan once a month during your minimum term. You'll need to restart your 24 month term and pay a $50 Early Recontracting Fee if you move to another bundle range before the end of your minimum term.

A $15 Service Assistance Fee applies unless you request the change online. Some exemptions apply.

Your home phone service and power outages

Your bundle includes a Telstra Voice Advanced service. During a power outage you won't be able to make or receive phone calls, including calls to Emergency '000' services.

If you're registered for Priority Assistance, or you advise us that you have a back to base alarm or medi-alert (personal response system) you intend to connect to your phone service on the NBN, you'll be provided with a Telstra Voice Standard service. This service will include a Power Supply with Battery Backup. During a power outage, the battery will provide power for a limited time (approximately five hours), allowing you to make and receive calls on your home phone if it doesn't also depend on mains power. For information please refer to the user guide supplied by NBN Co at the time of installation, or visit nbnco.com.au/battery

Telstra Voice Standard is not available over NBN Fixed Wireless connections. You'll need to retain or add a traditional home phone service in NBN Fixed Wireless areas, as this continues to work during a power outage.

Incompatible equipment

Most existing devices will be supported by a telephone service on the NBN. However, some older landline telephone handsets (such as a dial/rotary phone), back to base alarm systems, personal response systems (medical alert/emergency call systems) and fax machines may not work. Please check with the manufacturer/provider to check if your device is compatible.

Service and plan changes

If your telephone and broadband service on the NBN is delivered by a fibre connection, you can't move back to Telstra services on the existing copper network.
